Fachhochschule Burgenland

FH BURGENLAND. UNITING THE EXCEPTIONAL.

The University of Applied Sciences Burgenland's (FH Burgenland) two campuses in Eisenstadt and Pinkafeld offer bachelor and master programmes in five departments:

- International Business Relations (focusing on Central and Eastern Europe)
- Information Technology & Information Management
- Social Work
- Energy & Environmental Management
- Health

The Campus in Eisenstadt

With approximately 10,000 square meters of space, the Eisenstadt campus offers both auditoriums and classrooms of various sizes, plus a well-stocked library to facilitate studies. On-campus instruction is further enhanced by research in the media lab or in the market research labs. Common areas allow for short breaks and interaction with other students. A dormitory and cafeteria are located on the campus; parking is located in front of the university building. A fitness studio, stores and restaurants are within walking distance.

We focus on future-relevant topics; personal support and practical orientation are priorities in teaching – and all that comes without tuition fees!

Exceptional Growth

A unique community of teaching staff (from the respective fields) accompanies and supports leaders of the future along their path to success – a path characterized by interculturalism, regionality, research and innovation.

A Lifelong Network

More than 6,500 students have graduated from FH Burgenland; upon graduation they have received a diploma authorizing them to bear an academic title as well as a positive outlook for their future career.
